Shopping & Services Profile

A Bohemian Closet

Aurajan got its start a few years ago when Jessica Redditt, clothing designer and entrepreneur, opened a stall in the Byward Market. In October 2001, Redditt took the plunge and opened her first outlet on York Street, alongside Dragon's Dream, an eclectic antique and collectibles store. The atmosphere at Aurajan is free spirited and whimsical - just like the clothes! Whatever it lacks in size, it makes up in groove.

Fashions as original as you are!

Hate looking like a clone? Why not add some flare to your wardrobe? Aurajan's signature clothing lets you choose fashions as original as you are. Aurajan's collection is a unique mix of quality vintage wear, Napalese imports (including hand-knit wool sweaters) and the owner's own funky designs. My favourites are the romantic India-inspired tops made from beautifully coloured silks.

Accessorize in Style!

From jewelry to home decor, Aurajan is also a great place to find unique gifts. While Redditt designs some of the jewellery available, the majority is crafted by local artists. Beadwork, silver designs, stained glass and porcelain are all used to create these funky accessories. Spice up
