Restaurant Review

They come from near and far!

The Kanata location is the newest chain of the popular Montreal based Baton Rouge Inc. The original Baton Rouge restaurant was opened over five years ago in Laval, Quebec, and it has been growing ever since. The Kanata location not only popular with people who live and work in the West End; they manage to pull in the crowds from all over Ottawa with consistently delicious food and a great atmosphere.

Casual Sophistication

With their well spaced tables, Baton Rouge is a great place for groups to dine. If it's privacy you're seeking, why not sit at one of the spacious, dark red, leather backed booths? Stuck waiting for a friend? The bar is a great place to sit and have a drink while you wait for your table. The rich colours complemented by the mahogany wood tables create a luxurious and sophisticated atmosphere in this upscale bar and grill.

Why mess with perfection?

Everything on the menu shows the careful hand of people who love food. Although part of a restaurant chain, each location prepares its own foods on the premises. From salad dressings and dips to barbecue sauce and marinades, everything is prepared on site using corporate recipes. But it's not the chicken or succulent steaks cooked over aromatic hickory hard wood or even the delightful pastas that makes Baton Rouge so popular - it is the Danish baby back ribs. And perfection takes time! The cooking process takes a full 12 hours. And it doesn't stop there! Each dish is inspected before it leaves the kitchen ensuring that the high quality of the cooking is matched by a beautiful presentation. With this attention to detail, Baton Rouge is guaranteed to be a hit!

Simply the BEST

Posted on Apr. 02, 2003

For the price, it was probably the worst restaurant meal I've had in Ottawa! My Tuna was served lukewarm, my wife's halibut was nothing special, but left her feeling kind of queasy after - too much salt perhaps? The vegetables reminded me of university residence food. Maybe if you'd have better luck if you stuck with the steak or ribs - its easier to get those right. At $80 - $100 per couple, there are much better alternatives!
