Doesn't Get Much Fresher Than This

Open for brunch, lunch, dinner and drinks - The Cottage and a Kitchen features home style Canadian cuisine cooked onsite with fresh local ingredients. On the brunch menu, the Canadiana Crepe is made with pea meal bacon, mushrooms and mozzarella, the Atlantic features maple smoked salmon, and the cinnamon baked apple crepe is the third in this trio that reveals a strong Canadian bent to the menu.

Great Coffee, Great Meals

Pair up a great brunch with the best coffee in town! The coffee is served in Bodum coffee makers, giving the freshly roasted beans a nice full flavour. The lunch and dinner menus maintain the Canadian theme with a diversity of flavours combined to create deliciously wholesome and hearty meals. Vegetarians need not despair! The Wild Mushroom and Thyme linguini is to die for with its sauteed mushrooms, onion and roasted garlic sauce.

What's on Tap?

The Cottage and a Kitchen has one of the widest selections of local beers on tap in the city, including Scotch Irish Brewing Company's Session Ale and Heritage Brewing Company's Traditional Ale. Enjoy your beer while watching the game with

In this town, save maybe for a few stellar exceptions, my expectations hover at ground level when it comes to dining experiences. Dinner at Cottage and a Kitchen wasn't one of those mindblowing gastronomic experiences replete with jus of this and reduction of that. It was just a straight ahead, no apologies good food den you hope and pray for in your own neighbourhood. In the past year my husband and I always been served something really standout, be it slow roasted pork or jerk chicken. And best of all, these guys know that true service means getting you to come back. Our first visit wasn't a particularly good night for the kitchen, but the smooth recovery by an attentive server and then a sublime pasta and mushroom dish erased
