Hotel Review

Perfection takes time...

In the business for over ten years, hard work and effort have certainly paid off for this well established Bed and Breakfast. Featured in "Le guide du Routard," "Ulysses," as well as "Lonely Planet" and "Rough Guide," L'auberge Du Marche has developed a core group of regular guests who visit yearly. What do hosts, Nicole and Jean-Jacques enjoy the most? The variety of people they meet from around the globe.

Three bedrooms share a full washroom and one suite has a private bath. Both double and queen-sized beds are available. With the addition of central air, L'Auberge du Marche is "comfortable year round." One of the most alluring qualities of L'auberge du Marche is the importance hosts Nicole and Jean-Jacques allocate to comfort and privacy. Guests have a separate entrance way and key to come and go as they please.

1800 Eggs Cooked This Year!

A full breakfast is served every morning in the dining room consisting of freshly brewed coffee or tea, juice, fresh fruit granola and yogurt, muffins, cakes and a main course such as crepes or omelettes.
