Restaurant Review

Chopsticks on the Edge

With the myriad of restaurants to choose from in Ottawa's "Little China" district off Somerset Street West, it's hard to know which one to pick! Sometimes, it's better to look past the big flashy restaurants and venture into one of the smaller, independent joints. Northern 2 Chinese Restaurant is just this kind of place. On the fringe of Chinatown lies one of Ancient China's precious gems. Northern 2 Chinese Restaurant, although more like a diner than a traditional Chinese eatery, beats the competition with their amazingly delicious and authentic Chinese meals.

How Old?

Adventurous gourmands should try the fishy tasting thousand year egg with its shiny black exterior and creamy insides. As a main course, everyone will love Mongolia's most famous meal. You have never experienced the true flavours of China until you have tasted NC2's famous Mongolian hot pot. A communal dish, guests dip vegetables and thinly sliced meat into the steaming broth set in the center of the table. The flavours are rich yet delicate and the meat is always perfectly cooked to your taste since you get to do the honours of cooking it yourself! With options like these, a regular meal is transformed to a joyful and fun event. After your meal, treat

Rarely seen in the Ottawa area, this tiny gem features a wide range of dumplings (boiled or fried or steamed) and a Mongolian Hot-Pot, (regular or spicy), which can be ordered in set combinations, or by individual selections from a large list of common (raw beef) or exotic (woodear) items. Some of the noodle soups are a bit oily, but everything else is highly recommended.
