Shopping & Services Profile

Roy's Rubble

Featuring locally crafted antique furnishings and original hand crafted merchandise, Roy's Rubble has some irresistible finds to accent your home! Roy's Rubble is a delightful hodgepodge of trinkets and treasures. Whether you are looking for something to add charisma and style to a boring room or a tourist who's just browsing by, you will be sure to find something that captures your fancy.

Jan's Twisted Treasures!

If you haven't visited in awhile - check out the new and improved location. Roy's Rubble has moved next door into a larger venue. They have also added a new twist with Applegarth Trelliage. Jan, the creator of Applegarth, started her business in Oshawa and moved to Ottawa in 2001. Using mostly cedar and dogwood, Jan creates wonderful bower chairs, loveseats, plant stands and twig furniture made to order. Hand made batik fabrics are also available. Are you interested in getting hands-on? Workshops can be arranged for you to make your own bower chair or batik!

Don't Miss It!

One of the finest antique shops in town, Roy's Rubble is located in downtown

Ottawa's historic Byward Market. Terry, the proprietor of Roy's Rubble is well informed about antiques. If you are looking for something particular or would like an estimate on something you already have, Terry is the man to ask. Although the items on sale are already reasonable priced, don't be afraid to haggle a bit! Roy's Rubble is also a good place to keep in mind if you have any interesting pieces to sell. Make sure to visit often since they add new items regularly!
